

NEW YORK STATE BOARD OF LAW EXAMINERS

CIVILITY POLICY

- I. The Board and Board personnel are an integral part of the court system and should be treated with courtesy and respect at all times.
- II. Applicants for the bar examination or admission on motion should:
 - A. Strive to uphold the honor and dignity of the legal profession.
 - B. Maintain a respectful attitude toward the Board.
 - C. Speak and write civilly and respectfully in all communications with the Board and Board personnel.
 - D. Conduct themselves with dignity and refrain from engaging in acts of rudeness, disrespect or disorder.
 - E. Cooperate with the Board and Board personnel in all matters.
- III. Violations of this Civility Policy may, in the discretion of the Board, be reported to the Committee on Character & Fitness having jurisdiction over the applicant, or form the basis of a charge under Board Rule 6000.13 which prohibits Fraud, Dishonesty and Other Misconduct.
